Business Consultant Master Data Management (all genders)

Parsionate – Part of Accenture empowers businesses and unleashes their potential to create innovative new solutions. The key: data and all it has to offer. From strategy development to large-scale technological implementation, Parsionate works end-to-end on the client's side. This is Data Leadership.

What you can expect:

- You take responsibility for the development and implementation of technical solutions in data management projects

- You use your expertise to advise our customers on topics such as multidomain MDM, PIM, metadata management, data governance, data quality or data analytics

- You skilfully develop company-wide data models and define the requirements for data quality and its measurement together with our customers

- You are passionate about advising our customers on optimizing their business processes and supporting them in change management

- You are able to deliver your best performance in agile project teams as well as in classic project approaches

- The moderation of customer workshops is also part of your tasks, whereby it should not matter to you whether these take place remotely or on site

- In the project you strive to create the greatest possible added value for our customers

Your skillset:

- You have several years of professional experience as an IT consultant, preferably in the area of data and analytics

- You have knowledge in one or more data management solutions like Informatica, Riversand, Contentserv, Stibo, TIBCO or Ataccama

- You are proficient in the implementation of one of the mentioned data management solutions

- You have a strong personality and a strong understanding of technology and are a confident leader

- Your communication and presentation skills are outstanding

- A high sense of quality and responsibility is a matter of course for you

- Travel within Europe is not a showstopper for you

- You are fluent in German and English
